CANAL AND COASTWISE LAWS

(Associated Press Cable.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.— One of the most forceful speeches yet heard by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce was that delivered by President Dearborn of the American-Hawaiian steamship line today.

Mr. Dearborn asserted that in the event of the admission of foreign shipping to the American coastwise trade, the foreign shipping trust would ultimately control not only the trade along the coasts of the United States, but eventually become masters of the Panama Canal in a commercial sense.

With the great waterway in such control, said Mr. Dearborn, the canal route instead of being a benefit to the nation generally would simply be an adjunct to the steel corporations and other big allied concerns.

TAFT ENTERTAINED BY DUKE AND DUCHESS

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—The Duke and Duchess of Connaught were guests of President and Mrs. Taft at the White House today, and later entertained the Chief Executive and his wife at the British embassy.

Following the dinner given by the British ambassador, the duke was the guest of honor at a banquet given by the Washington Press Club, at which he made an address. He expressed the hope of the people of England and of himself, he said, that the two countries might always be bound together in sincere friendship. The address was heartily cheered.

SOLDIERS KILLED BY EXPLOSION

GUAYAQUIL, Ecuador, Jan. 25.— This city was shaken by a terrific explosion which killed sixty soldiers at the artillery barracks this morning.

Following upon the signing of the articles of peace tremendous excitement prevailed and for hours all sorts of rumors were afloat. Thousands of people flocked to the scene where smoldering ruins and torn bodies told of the power of the explosion, but lastly-summoned troops kept the crowds at a distance.

Up to a late hour no satisfactory explanation of the disaster has been offered to the public.

YELLOW FEVER RAGING IN CENTRAL AMERICA

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 25.—Calculated advice received at the Navy Department today from the commanding officer of the gunboat Yorktown report eighty sailors and marines are down with yellow fever, and further that the dread disease is making sad headway in many Central American ports.

Commander Berthotte of the Yorktown, who contracted the fever a week ago and died on Tuesday, was buried with military and naval honors today.

GERMAN ELECTIONS HELP THE LIBERALS

BERLIN, Ger., Jan. 25.—Returns from the elections which have for several days been taking place throughout the empire give such gains to the national liberals that they now hold the balance of power in the Reichstag.

ARGENTINA BREAKS PARAGUAY RELATIONS
